

Become a Football Official

Come Join our Team!

The British Columbia Football Officials Association is looking for individuals interested in becoming Football Officials for the upcoming BC High School Football Leagues and the GSL Community Football Leagues

Football in British Columbia is growing in interest and there is a real need for new officials to officiate over 12,000 children from ages 6 to 18 playing Football in BC.

Training is provided free of charge. Assistance is available on equipment costs at the completion of your first season.

- ⇒ High School Game Fees start at $42 per game
- ⇒ High School Weekdays Games start at 3:30 PM and are played throughout the Lower Mainland
- ⇒ Sunday's GSL Community League in North Vancouver helps to refine your skills with multiple game assignments
- ⇒ Monthly training clinics
- ⇒ BCFOA services the CFL, CIS and Junior football, so there is an opportunity to advance into higher level games.
